

PSAT/SAT AND ACT TEST PREP

PSAT/SAT AND ACT TEST PREPARTION THIS SUMMER WITH PRINCETON REVIEW

Once again Brother Martin High School is partnering with The Princeton Review to provide two courses this summer to prepare our students for the ACT and PSAT/SAT.

From June 14, 2010 to June 25, 2010, The Princeton Review's best instructors will conduct a PSAT/SAT preparation course which will include four practice tests and six 3-hour classes.

From July 6, 2010 to July 16, 2010, we will be hosting a Princeton Review ACT preparation course. This course will also include four practice tests and six 3-hour classes.

Letters are being sent home to the families of the classes of 2011 and 2012, encouraging students to enroll in these classes. Enrollment for the class of 2012 was further encouraged for the PSAT/SAT class, given the benefits of potential National Merit standing.

The cost of each of these classes is $450, half of Princeton Review's usual course cost. We are proud to offer you such valuable and affordable test preparation courses here on our campus. If you are interested in having your son attend either of these courses, please contact The Princeton Review at 865-1060 by May 31, 2010 for the PSAT/SAT class and June 22, 2010 for the ACT class. If you have questions, please call Mrs. Leftwich.
